

Profile Overview

With extensive experience in Customer Services, education in Public Administration and currently Volunteering as an AMES English Tutor, I am well versed in listening to and assisting people from diverse community in person and over phone. In addition, I've earned the contentment to serve people by raising funds independently for an organisation "The Old Age People" add to my ability to maintain amicable relationships with people of all community.

Key skills

- Active Listener: Gained from experience and I'm using this skill every day to deal with people and to resolve conflicts.
- Proficient in English language both written and oral acquired through study and work experience.
- Extremely polite and patient: The skill which helps me in building and maintaining relations with the community from diverse culture and background.
- Excellent Time Management: I've learned this through experience and ability to prioritize and finish the assigned tasks on time.
- Highly Flexible: Every opportunity comes with a new challenge and new learning, and as a curious person, I'm flexible to adjust myself based on the circumstances and options.
- Team player: Born and brought up in a joint family, this skill has been ingrained in me.
- Organised: I'm naturally blessed with this skill, love to organise things around me which makes the ambience more positive.
- Continuous Improvements: I believe that everyone is a learner, we learn everyday even doing same repeatedly things consciously or unconsciously. I learn to improve things.
